

Bernice Pauahi Bishop Museum

-11-

Polyesian Ethnology and Natural History.

WILLIAM T. BISHAM, DIRECTOR.

Honolulu, H. I., November 21st 1905.

David Forbes Esq.,

(of Kukuihaele),

Hawaiian Hotel, H O N O L U L U.

Dear Sir,

Complying with your request, I have valued the collection of ethnological specimens seen by me here and by Mr Stokes in Kukuihaele, and as a collection consider them worth $472.00 divisible as follows:-

1 Larger wooden image	110.00	15 Olona scraper, pearl	7.50
2 Smaller " "	90.00	16 " " "	.50
3 Wooden akua	50.00	17 Shell bead	1.00
4 " "	50.00	18 Foreign fan	--
5 Ipu aina, with figures	60.00	19 Remains of feather cape	8.00
6 " "	25.00	20 " " (bird) net	.50
7 Papa konane	50.00	21 Bunches of feathers	1.50
8 Helmet, ieie and hair	12.00	22 92 boards' tusks at .25	23.00
9 Iuewai	10.00	23 Fern sticks, camp stool	--
10 Large gourd	1.00	24 Fragments of rope &c.	.50
11 Iou funnel	6.00	25 Block of kauila wood	.25
12 Small gourd uneke	.25	26 Glass beads & crockery	--
13 Small wand, fly flap.	1.00	No number. Board, ? use.	1.00
14 Shark tooth knife	10.00

I am much obliged to you and your two friends for the samples of kapa in the collection. I have not attempted to value the kapa and would not care to do so without the dimensions of the sheets. However, I understand that this is not desired.

I thank you for the kindness and courtesy shown Mr Stokes during his visit.

Yours very truly, (S) W. T. BISHAM

EXHIBIT "5"