

KĀKO`O`ŌIWI

WHAT WE DO:

Kāko`o`Ōiwi works with a number of experienced cultural practitioners and community organizers to assist other non-profit organizations in Hawai`i.

SERVICES INCLUDE:

- Forming non-profit organizations
- Non-profit organization administration
- Cultural facilitation and mediation
- Networking and fundraising
- Technological Services
- Educational development
- Event planning and public relations

As a Native Hawaiian nonprofit organization, Kāko`o`Ōiwi is particularly committed to other Native Hawaiian organizations, environmental groups, Native Hawaiian arts and artists, educational organizations and charitable organizations that provide direct social services to our community.

KĀKO`O`ŌIWI

Contact Us:
PO Box 62092
Honolulu, HI 96839

www.nativehawaii.org
E-mail: kakou@nativehawaii.org

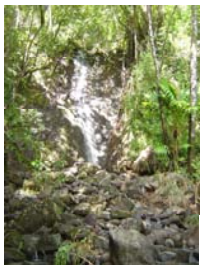

KĀKO`O`ŌIWI

KĀKO`O`ŌIWI IS A NON-PROFIT ORGANIZATION DEDICATED TO THE PERPETUATION OF THE CULTURAL AND SPIRITUAL PRACTICES OF THE NATIVE HAWAIIAN PEOPLE AND WAS CREATED TO PROVIDE A VENUE FOR THE DISSEMINATION OF NATIVE HAWAIIAN EDUCATIONAL MATERIALS AND COMMUNITY NETWORKING.

KĀKO`O`ŌIWI

Kāko`o`Ōiwi began when members of the Native Hawaiian community began to recognize the need for an organization that provided administrative services and community organizing to the larger non-profit community. The members of Kāko`o`Ōiwi thereby make a wide range of services available to charitable organizations, including non-profit legal consulting, non-profit administration, grant-writing, event planning, fundraising, facilitation, human services consulting, mediation, public relations, technology services, website building, Native Hawaiian cultural practices, educational services and community networking.

Over 45 years of serving Hawai`i's non-profit commu-

ADMINISTRATION

Forming and running a non-profit organization can be a difficult job. It does not have to be. Kāko`o`Ōiwi works with experienced community organizers who can help you run your non-profit organization easily and effectively. From assistance with legal formation to operational administrative tasks, our members draw from years of experience within the non-profit community when serving our clients.

NETWORKING

Kāko`o`Ōiwi carefully selects its clients. For we believe our clients become a reflection of our organization, therefore we will only work with groups that appreciate and support our mission. We strongly believe that the non-profit community must work together in order achieve our collective goals, therefore, organizations that work with Kāko`o`Ōiwi also become part of a network of non-profit organizations committed to serving Hawai`i's community. Non-profit organizations are far more than our profession, they are our passion.

Executive Director,
Kehaulani Watson
and Board Member,
Kahi Brooks.

CULTURAL PRACTICES

The members of Kāko`o`Ōiwi are all Native Hawaiian cultural practitioners. As such, we follow traditional cultural practices in our professional activities. We believe this to be particularly important for non-profit organizations that are connected to Hawai`i. Kāko`o`Ōiwi is committed to helping other non-profit organizations develop and practice a greater respect for the beliefs and traditions of Native Hawaiians. This practice is an essential and required element of all our professional activities, as it is part of our organization's mission. Through education and respect, we are confident that together we can help restore a better, healthier Hawai`i.

KĀKO`O`ŌIWI

Contact Us:
PO Box 62092
Honolulu, HI 96839

www.nativehawaii.org
E-mail: kakou@nativehawaii.org